THE NEW CABINET.

the Different Departments-Notes and Incidents of the Occasion.

WASHINGTON, March 7.- The formal transfer of the Treasury Department from ex-Secretary Me-Culloch to Secretary Manning took place this morning. The new Secretary was escorted to the Department by the retiring Secretary, who called at his house for him. Soon after their arrival Mr. McCulloch presented Assistant Secretaries Franch and Coon to Secretary Manning, who had not yet taken the oath, but who said he would probably during the day. As he did not propose to enter actively into the business of the office until Monday, he requested Assistant Secretary Coon to sign the mail for him to day as Acting Secretary. Mr. Manning and Mr. McCulloch then retired to the Secretary's private office, and remained closeted together for several hours, talking over the business and personnel of the department. A large number of persons called to pay their respects to the new Secretary, but were denied admission. Secretary McCalloch said yesterday, in speaking of the change in the administration, that be took it for granted that Mr. Manning shared the views of President Cleveland on the question of finance, and as the President's views on that subject are in accord with his own, he did not auticipate any change the present financial policy of

It is understood General Hazen has written a etter to the new Secretary or War, asking that no steps be taken to dissolve the Court Martial recently ordered to try that official (it having been intimated that such action would be taken by President Cleveland), and requesting he may be tried in justice to himself.

In the State, War and Navy Department buildings, this morning, the retiring Secretaries bade the chiefs and cleras who served under them goodbye, and complimented them on their services. Secretaries Freylinghuysen and Lincoln met their subordinates in the offices which the heads of the State and War Department have occupied. Segretary Chandler called upon his subordinates in their respective rooms. No official business of any character was transacted by the retiring officers prior to the incoming Secretaries taking the oath of office. The building was filled with visitors. Congressman-elect Wheeler, of Alabama, headed a delegation that entered the apartment occupied by the Secretary of the Navy. The members of the delegation were men above the average size, and numbered about a dezen. They were introduced to the retiring Secretary, and every one as a General or a Colonel. Chandler, a man small in stature, quietly forded his hands in front of him and plaintively remarked, "Gentlemen, give me time to pray." When he turned to Wheeler and was about to ask, "Where are the Judges? he found the Congressman-elect had, left the room or a moment, but he soon returned with four Alabama men, to all of whom he gave the title of 'Judges.' A general laugh followed, and the party then engaged in conversation. Promptly at 12 m. four of President Cleveland's Cabinet-Bayard, Whitney, Endicott and Garland -entered the office of the Secretary of State. Mrs. Endicott, wife of the new Secretary of War, accompanied the party, as did also Justice Field, of the United States Supreme Court. Immediately after entering, Mr. Bayard took the oath of office, which was administered by Justice Field. Secretary Frelinghuysen and ex-Assistant Secretary Davis were present, as also were Senator Payne, of Ohio, and ex-Attorney General Pierrepent. The party then went to the room occupied by Secretary Chandler, where Mr. Whitney took the oath of office as Secretary of the Navy. In Secretary Lincoln's office, where Lieutenant General Sheridan and staff and other officers of the War Department had assembled, the oath was administered to Endicott. Mrs. Endicott entered the room on the arm of Mr. Bayard. As soon as Justice Field had administered the oath, the various army officers were in turn introduced to the new Secretary by Mr. Lincoln. Attorney General Garland was sworn into office at the Department of Justice. The oath was administered by Justice Field, in the presence of Secretaries Bayard, Manning, Whitney, Endicott and Lamar, and a few others. Brewster will continue to as Attorney General until Monday. when he will formally present his suc-cessor to the United States Supreme Court. The party proceeded from the Depart-ment of Justice to the Treasury Department, where the oath of office was administered to secretary Manning. In addition to those already named, there were present ex-Secretary McCulloch, Assistant Secretary Coon; W. H. Barnum, of connecticut; Smith M. Weed, of New York, and meny others, including several ladies. Soon after Secretary Manning had qualified all the bureau officers and chiefs of divisions visited his office and paid their respects.

Postmaster General Vilas and Secretary Lamar also took the oath of office, and entered upon the discharge of their duties. There was little formality in the ceremonies in either case. The oaths were administered by Justice Field, in the presence of Secretary Bayard, Attorney General arland and others

No Decrease in the Number of Visitors-Some Paying Their Kespects, Others on Business-An Incident of the terant Commission.

WASHINGTON, Maren 7 .- The rush of visitors to the White House continued to day, with no apparent decrease in number. A majority merely called to pay their respects to the President, but many came on business. There were several delegations, including one from Missouri, headed by Senators Cockrell and Vest; another from Texas, headed by Senator Coke, and others from Kansas and Colorado. Among the callers were Vice President Hendricks, Sanator Voorhees and Judge Niblack, Secretaries Bayard and Manning, Attorney General Garlaud, Postmaster General Vilas, ex-Secretary McCalloch. Senstors Beck, Blackburn, Colquitt, George, Saulsbury, Payne, Gorman, Speaker Carlisle, Representative Morri-on, Buckner, Moulton, Cox, of New York; Belford, O'Neil, Payne. Warner, of Ohio; Bland, Merrill, of Kansas; Dersheimer, Greenlief, Irish, Whitney, Hitl and Hardeman. District Commissioner Phoene W. Couzins, Erastus L. Cleveland, of Pittsburg; Judge Free, D. C. Williams, of Tennessee: E J. Newman, of

New York: Commissioner Butterworth, Julius Housman, of Michigan. L. D. W. Sweet, Edward R. Bacon and B. W. Jones of Wisconsin. The Judges of the Court of Claims called in a body about 2 o'clock. The President has notified his Private Secretary that he does not propose to receive persons who cal! in regard to appointments, as he is desirons that all applications of that character shall be acted upon by the head of the department to which they belong.

Phil Thompson, of Kentucky, is making a strong fight for the Commissionership of Internal Revenue He has the earnest support of Beck, Blackburn and Carlisle.

When the commission was made out for the appointment of General Grant on the retired list, secretary Lincoln retained it at the War Department, thinking it proper the new Secretary should be given an opportunity to countersign it after its signature by the President. Yesterday morning the President sent for it, in order that there might the President sent for it, in order that there might be no delay in making the appointment. Secre-tary Lincoln took the commission to the Execu-tive Mansion in person, and handed it to the Pres-ident, remarking that he had not yet acted upon it, because he thought Judge Endicott would be pleased to attend to it as one of his first official

"That was very thoughtful in young Mr. Liucoln," observed the President. "I have no doubt it would be a pleasure to Judge Endic. tt, still I will sign it myself that there may be no delay, and then Judge Endicott can countersize, it."
President Cleveland thereupon affixed his signature to the commission. After the official record was made it was returned to the War Department.
This morning it was on the desk of the new Secretary of War, and the first official act of Secretary Endicott was to countersign it. Endicott was to countersign it.

It is understood that Judge Q. J. Mackey. counsel for General Hazen, will challenge all the members of the court martial to convene on Wednesday next, for the trial of that officer, on the ground that the late Secretary of War brought the charge of disrespect to himself, and he, the accuser, at the same time made the detail for the court, which legally taints its character as a judicial body.

Correspondence sent by the Associrted Press from Chicago, announcing the appointment of General Black as Commissioner of Pensions, has developed the fact that President Cleveland has made a popular selection. The appointment is well received in all quarters, and it is said the General will be asked to assume the duties of the office at an early day.

Callers on the New Secretaries. WASHINGTON, March 7.-Secretary Lamar re-Office, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and the Commissioner of Pensions had prepared their resignations, but at the Secretary's request deferferred presenting them until Monday. One of Secretary Lamar's first official acts was to reinstate Mr. Hanna as Private Secretary to the Secretary of the Interior, which position te had held under Secretaries Schurz and Teller. From remarks that have been made by the new Secretary it is evidently his intention to adopt a conservative course in making changes in the rersonnel of the Interior Department, and he is said to be thoroughly in sympathy with Presi-

THE RAILROAD STRIKERS. The Strike Spreading on the Wabash and Texas Pacific Roads-The End

Not Yet. St. Louis, March 7.-The railroad strike here remains unchanged. The few men who left the Wabash repair shop, a few days ago, still remain out, but their places have been generally filled, and the affair is considered a trifling one by the officers of the road. No action has yet been taken by the Missouri Pacific employes here with a view to joining the strikers in Texas, and business is going on as usual, except that perishable freight is not being taken for points in Texas. All passenger trains are running regularly.

The striking shopmen of the Wabash Railway met in secret session to-day. The met are promised aid from the Knights of Labor. Martin, Superintendent of the Car Service of the Wabash system, claims that the strike is over, and says more men are applying for work than can be employed. A rumor is current in the shops here to day that the Peru and Decatur men will quit work after to-day SEDALA, Mo., March 7.-At 3:20 this afternoon the shop men, hostlers and wipers of the Missouri Pacific, at this place, on a signal whistle, walked away from their work, formed in a line about four hundred strong, and marched to Smith's Opera House, where they held a secret meeting until after 6 o'clock. It is understood they resolved to stop all freight trains to-night, and unless their demands are granted by Monday. they will allow no passenger trains to leav., noth ing but a locomotive and mail car w'll be allowed pass. The shopmen held a meeting last night, and made a demand that their wages be restored to what they were before the cut of last October. This was communicated to the officials of the road, with the statement that they could wait till 3 p. m. to day for an answer. No answer was received, and the strike was inaugurated. About 8 e'clock to night the car inspectors struck.

DENISON, Tex., March 7 .- The strike proceeds quietly, and the news that the machinists at Parsons and Sedalla had quit work this afternoon enconraged the strikers here. Two trains arrived to day, and both were side-tracked by the strikers and the fires drawn from the engines. The strikers have notified the Texas Central Rathroad that if they send engines over the Missouri Pacific track, for the purpose of assisting the latter company in moving its cars, such relief engines will certainly be seized and temporarily disabled. A delegation from the striking workmen at Parsons arrived this evening, and are quietly conferring with the strikers to-night. A detail of strikess at the shop keeps steam and hose in readiness to extinguish a fire. Reports from strikers a Marshall, Longview, Palestine and Fort Worth show no signs of weak-

MARSHALL Tex., March 7 .- 411 was quiet among the striking railroad employes to-day. At a meeting this evening the strikers rescinded a resolution notifying Superintendent Havnes that he must leave town in twenty-four hours. talning good discipline, and stopped five mare freight trains to day coming from the direction of Pelestine. The sidetracks are covered with freight

Miss Douglas, a young lady aged sixteen, while on her way home, two miles from Brownsville, was assaulted and outraged by a negro flend. Her cries for help were heard, but were attributed to some negroes who were attending a funeral. Miss Douglas made a frantic struggle, and is bruised in a fearful manner. gave way, and a strong current of water rushed lown into the Alexandria bottom lands. The Keokuk and St. Louis line of railway track is cov ered with two feet of water above Alexandria and trains are sent from Quincy to Burlington over the C., B. and Q. track in Illinois. The iron bridge over Sugar Creek, in Rock Island, is out of line, and two smaller bridges are damaged. Four miles of track is under water. The gorge at Eddyville extends up the river for five miles, and the ice is piled up fifteen feet high. The railroad bridge at the mouth of the Des Molnes is still in danger A party of men who went a few miles up the

Des Moines river to resone Mrs. Mary Kennedy, who was in a house surrounded by water and ice have just returned. They were successful. They say the Missouri bottom above Alexandria is a sea of ice and water; fences and stock at least must have suffered a loss. The water comes up to the tops of the corn stalks standing in the fields. The people driven from their homes are near St. Francisville, Missourt.

LOVE ON LITTLE WHEELS. How a Syracuse Girl and a Blacksmith

Met and Were Married.

SYRACUSE, March 7 .- Mary Sullivan, fourteen years old, is a petite brunette, whose parents live in this city. Charles L. Hoyt is a brawny blacksmith of twice her age. He lives at Onondaga Valley, and is the son of well-to-do parents. The parents of the former are Roman Catholics, and these of the latter are staunch members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The pair came together a few days ago at the rink. In a few nights they were so desperately smitten that marriage was proposed, but the religious faiths being antaronistic and neither being willing to yield, the matter remained in suspense until Monday last, when Miss Sullivan disappeared from her home and the police were notified. Her parents thought she had either been abducted or had met with foul play, and were greatly agitated. To-day a detective found the couple living to gether as happily as turtle doves in West Jefferson street. They announced themselves as man and wife, and produced a marriage certificate, by which it appeared they were married on Monday by a Justice of the Peace. When the father of the girl learned of the step his daughter had taken he swore vengeance on the best of floyt, and registered an eath that he would shoot him on sight At police headquarters the parents of the girl, the newly married couple, the Police Magistrate and Rev. The infection was communicated by a bull purchased last July from S. S. Tripp, of Peoria, ill. As soon as the snimal was known to be infected it was isolated from the herd, but the contagion had pread with the above result. Dr. Trumbower, of the Agricultural Department, Washington, has been to Fulton several cays, and has made a thorough search of the herd, and declares the disease is pleuro-pneumonia, and advises the killing of the whole herd. Effective measures will immediately taken to prevent the spread of the disease outside of the herd affected.

ALBANY, March 7 .- There was a sensational ep isode in the office of Justice Chute the other day Mrs. Annie Becude, the young and handsome wife of Christopher Becude, charged her husband with having assaulted her. He was, she said, insanely jealous of a young man who boarded in the house, and had accused her repeatedly of inti-macy with him. Becude promised never to repear the charge, but his wife would not consent to acturn to his home after his gross insults. Fi nally she said: "Give me $1,000; you take the re mainder of the property and we will go our way."
